

H2c: Cross-channel convergence in dispersion levels [EXPLORATORY]

Dalton-weighted SD of party polarization scores, mean over legislative periods

Hollow = manifesto dispersion, filled = speech dispersion; the connecting line is the cross-channel gap. Manifesto weighted by vote share, speech by seat share. Parties disperse less in speech than in their manifestos in every domain. Directional layer exploratory ($\kappa(B) = 0.456$; Section 3.5).